General Conditions for the use of e-Financials

1. General Provisions

- 1.1. These general conditions for the use of e-Financials system (hereinafter named as General Conditions of e-Financials) of the Centre of Registers and Information Systems (hereinafter named as RIK) regulate the legal relationship between the customer using e-Financials and the RIK.
- 1.2. In addition to the General Conditions of e-Financials, the legal relationship between the Parties is governed by the legislation of the Republic of Estonia, also the service descriptions and user instructions and conditions established by RIK and published on the website or subdomain of www.rik.ee or introduced otherwise by RIK to the Client.

2. Conclusion of the contract for the use of e-Financials

- 2.1. To use e-Financials, the Client shall submit all the data requested by RIK. Upon the conclusion of the contract for the use of inquiry systems, the Client is obliged to submit to RIK true, complete and accurate data about themselves.
- 2.2. The contract for the use of e-Financials will enter into force, after confirming the General Conditions of e-Financials by the authorized person of Client.

3. Access to e-Financials

- 3.1. As a representative of the Client, the right to use the e-Financials in the name and on behalf of the Client belongs to a natural person, who has been appointed by the Client as the person with the user right (hereinafter named as the User).
- 3.2. On conclusion of the contract for the use of e-Financials, all members of the Board gain user rights of e-Financials. Members of the board can add users and manage their rights.
- 3.3. The use of e-Financials requires authentication which can be carried out by ID-card, Mobile-ID or Smart ID.
- 3.4. The Client is liable for all the Users acting in Client's name and shall ensure that a User acting in the name of the Client fulfils unwaveringly the conditions in the contract for the use of e-Financials and in legislation, and the requirements established by RIK to the use of e-Financials.

4. Using the e-Financials.

- 4.1. e-Financials is used for a fee. Service fees are established with the directive of the director of RIK. Service fees are also published in a price list on the RIK website www.rik.ee.
- 4.2. Client can use the demo version of e-Financials for free. Demo version can be used for testing the e-Financials, but it is not allowed to enter the actual data to the system, because data is visible to all users of demo version.
- 4.3. Fees related to the use of e-Financials are calculated once a month or as a one time fee for services rendered. The Client undertakes to pay the service fees on the basis of an invoice issued by RIK.
- 4.4. Unless agreed otherwise by the Parties, RIK shall forward the invoice to the Client only in the electronic form. The invoice shall be paid in 14 (fourteen) calendar days from the issuing of the invoice
- 4.5. The client should pay the service fees that are computed on the basis of the calendar month (hereinafter as Monthly fee), in full also for the period, when the access of the Client to e-Financials had been restricted. The monthly fee is computed according to valid service fee rates.
- 4.6. The Client shall be notified about changes in the service fees through the RIK website www.rik.ee at least 30 (thirty) calendar days before the changes take effect. The abovenamed notice period shall not be applied in case of changes that involve the reduction of service fees or addition of new services to the price list
- 4.7. An invoice shall be deemed paid, when the whole amount presented in the invoice has arrived on the bank account of Ministry of Finance indicated in the invoice. In case of delay with the payment, RIK shall have the right to request from the Client a fine of 0.2% of the outstanding amount for each calendar day of delay.
- 4.8. RIK notifies the Client of the occurrence of a debt through the e-Financials system. The Client can download copies of unpaid invoices in PDF format from the e-Financials. If the claim is not satisfied, the Client's access to the e-Financials will be automatically restricted 60 calendar days after the the occurrence of a debt. The Client's access to the e-Financials will be automatically restored within 5 business days from the receipt of the amount owed to RIK at the details indicated on the invoice. In the event of non-payment of the debt within 18 months from the date the debt was incurred, RIK has the right to terminate the contract and to delete the Client's data. Client shall be prohibited from entering into a new contract until the debt is paid.
- 4.9. The Client is obliged to compensate RIK for costs related to the collection of debts from the Client, incl. for the assistance of persons acting as the representatives of RIK in the collection of debts.
- 4.10. Amounts overpaid by the Client will be calculated as a prepayment for the next invoice. An amount overpaid by the Client, which is less than € 72.00, will be calculated as a prepayment without notifying the Client thereof. If the amount is greater than € 72.00, the RIK will notify the Client latest by the last day of the corresponding quarter pursuant to the procedure prescribed in clause 8.2. If the Client wishes to have the overpaid amount refunded, the RIK will refund the overpaid amount to the bank account specified by the Client. Upon the termination of a contract, the RIK will refund the overpaid amount to the Client.
- 4.11. If the Client uses services of other service providers (for example banks) through e-Financials, the client pays for these services according to the price list of service provider.
- 4.12. With the conclusion of the contract for the use of e-Financials the Client confirms that it shall use the e-Financials in compliance with valid legislation, in good faith and refraining from prejudiced action against RIK or third parties.

4.13. RIK holds all the copyrights and rights accompanying copyrights related to the e-Financials.

5. Maintenance of e-Financials
